THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

LESSON IX, SECOND QUARTER, INTER NATIONAL SERIES, MAY 29.

Text of the Lesson, Matt. xxvi, 17-30. Memory Verses, 26-28—Golden Text, 1 Cor. v, 7—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

(Copyright, 1903, by American Press Association.)

Between the last lesson, on humility, and this passover lesson we have omitted nearly all the events of the last week of His life and have come right up to the very last evening before His crucifixion. It seems so unsatisfactory to get so little where there is so much, but this is true of even the smallest portion of Scripture, and we must rely upon the Spirit to give us all that He sees we can receive. In a sentence, let us glance at some of the things we have passed over—the healing of the blind as he entered and left Jericho, the visit to the house of Zaccheus, the supper and anointing at Bethany, the public entry into Jerusalem, the temple cleansing, the fig tree cursed, the poor widow's offering commended and many parables and discourses.

Happy are the believers who can find time to meditate upon these things and upon the apostles' teaching of our lesson as recorded by Mark and Luke as well as by Matthew, and Luke xxii, 8, says that He sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare us the passover that we may eat." Then they went to the city to buy the passover. He sent them into the city, telling them that a man bearing a pitcher of water would meet them and by following him they would find the house. Then they went to ask the goodman of the house, and he would show them a large upper room, furnished and prepared, and there they were to make ready. They found as He had said and did as He had appointed them (Mark xiv, 13-16).

There is a word in Prov. iii, 5, 6, which has been a blessing to me for forty years, having taken hold of me when I was a young man, a clerk in a store. Do not fail to look it up and eat it, and may the "where wilt thou" of this lesson and the "what wilt thou" of Acts ix, 6, be our continual attitude to Him whose we are and whom we serve (Acts xxvii, 23), who has all our good works prepared for us to walk in and who will guide us as surely and definitely as He guided the apostles on this occasion and when He sent them for the ass' colt (Luke xix, 30-33). See for your comfort and assurance in the matter of guidance Eph. ii, 10; Phil. ii, 6, 7; Ps. xxii, 8; Isa. lxxv, 21; xli, 13; but be sure you never lean to your own understanding nor wait your own way in anything; be good clay in the potter's hand (Isa. lxiv, 8; Jer. xviii, 6).

Now let us visit the upper room and see our Lord and the apostles on the passover. This also had been foreseen and arranged before the world was. Of all the passovers, from the first in Egypt (Ex. xii), this was the greatest, for it was the last, the consummation and fulfillment of all the others. Concerning this one He said, "With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer; for I say unto you, I will not eat thereof until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God" (Luke xxii, 15, 16). Thus He points us on to a greater deliverance for Israel than ever Egypt had witnessed (Ex. xvi, 14, 15; xxiii, 7, 8). All the steps in the great atonement whereby Israel should be redeemed, the church gathered and the kingdom of God established on this earth had been arranged in the eternity past, in due time unfolded, foretold, foreshadowed, to man, and as the appointed time comes all is fulfilled, for "the Scripture cannot be broken," and "every purpose of the Lord shall be performed" (John x, 35; Jer. ii, 29).

The institution of the passover (Ex. xii) should be carefully studied, and the lessons of the lamb, the blood, the bitter herbs, the unleavened bread, etc., be prayerfully enforced. The feet washing and the teaching connected therewith (John xiii, 1-17) should be considered before Judas' betrayal is pointed out as the betrayer. How awful the words, "One of you shall betray me." "It had been good for that man if he had not been born" (verses 21, 24). Jesus knew from the beginning who was the betrayer, but He said, "He that should betray me, him I do not know" (John vi, 70). But that did not prevent the betrayal of Judas, for he had every opportunity to believe if he had only been willing. In John xiii, 30, we read that Judas, having received the sop, went immediately out, and it was night. It is still night with him who betrays his Master, the darkness of selfishness forever, and there is no escape (John xxvi, 18; Luke xxi, 29; Rev. xxi, 8).

The passover being fulfilled, or about to be, but not for the national benefit of Israel at that time, because they knew not the time of their visitation and would not have their Messiah. He had to wait until the ordinance to continue the passover was given, as it is written, "As often as ye eat this cup ye do this in remembrance of Me" (1 Cor. x, 16). The Father, that God who delivered us from all (1 Cor. xv, 24-26). Deliverance from all (1 Cor. xv, 24-26). Deliverance from all (1 Cor. xv, 24-26).

Steamer Corwin, Seattle For Nome, Wash., May 24.—It is reported from Victoria that the steamer Corwin, which sailed from Seattle for Nome with 89 passengers Tuesday, has been found on the west of Vancouver Island. She was scheduled to sail Monday a week ago, but some of the persons booked for passage complained to United States inspectors of the way the steamer was overloaded, and the inspectors ordered all freight stored in the holds. Tacoma shipping men who saw the steamer before she sailed expressed the fear that she was lost. The Corwin had quite a list and seemed to be heavy and unseaworthy.

He had the distinction of winning all three of the great events of the British turf, 2,000 guineas, the derby and the St. Leger. He was eventually sold to his late owner for $150,000 for breeding purposes.

Bishop Elect Day Resigns.
Los Angeles, Cal., May 24.—The Methodist general conference found itself confronted with a duty almost unprecedented in the history of the Methodist church, that of acting upon the resignation of one of its bishops, Rev. James R. Day, chancellor of the university, who on last Sunday was chosen as the last of the eight bishops elected by the present conference, resigned his place in the episcopal board and was excused, at his request, from further attendance upon the conference.

Democratic National Convention.
St. Louis, May 24.—The subcommittee of the Democratic national committee met here and practically completed arrangements for the Democratic national convention, which will meet in this city July 6, and adjourn to meet again Wednesday, June 15, at the Hotel Jefferson. The disposition of the tickets for the 10,450 seats that will be provided for in the convention hall for delegates, alternates, the press and the general public was taken care of and other matters were arranged.

Failed to Label Oils.
St. Louis, May 24.—George H. Lehter of St. Louis pleaded guilty in the United States district court to coloring and selling oleomargarine without labeling it as such, and was fined $1,000. He said he would serve the sentence rather than pay the fine.

Successful Festival.
Cincinnati, O., May 16.—The sixteenth biennial music festival closed Saturday after one of the most successful meetings in its history, extending over 31 years. Its artistic excellence is fully matched by a gratifying financial success. The programs have been severe and bright, alternately, the classics at night and the varied programs in the afternoons. The net result has been almost unqualified praise for chorus, orchestra and soloists.

China Wants American Officers.
St. Paul, Minn., May 16.—Evidence that the Chinese government is recruiting officers for what is known as the Chinese imperial reform army, in the United States developed here on receipt by W. F. Maudslayi of St. Paul, of what apparently is equivalent to a commission for a second sutanency in the Chinese army. Edmund F. English of Y. who is said to be an American officer, was sent to the scene and set fire to the village, where the cannibals resided. The Condor threatened to annihilate the village if it did not hand over the cannibals. This was done and the cannibals were shot.

Fell Into Burning Oil.
Houston, Tex., May 14.—Fire at Batson destroyed eighteen derricks, five drilling rigs and twenty-two tanks containing about 15,000 barrels of oil. Tom Walker of Leavenworth, Kansas, mounted a ladder in an effort to cut off the flow of oil, but fell into a mass of burning oil and timber and was slowly roasted to death while the spectators looked on helpless to reach him. The loss is $60,000.

Peary Expedition.
St. John, N. F., May 14.—Captain Peary, United States navy, the Arctic explorer, is negotiating for the sealing steamer, Eagle, to convey him and a preliminary expedition to Littleton island, in the Greenland seas, during the present summer, where he will arrange for his large polar expedition next season. English Engineers.
New York, May 16.—The first delegation of foreign mechanical engineers to arrive in this country to attend the international convention at Chicago, were Herbert Jewson, S. M. Marsh and G. Croydon Marke. On the next steamer 50 more engineers will come.

Letters of Introduction.
Try not to ask for letters of introduction to your friends' friends. It often causes both embarrassment and inconvenience. If the letter of introduction is offered accept it and present it dutifully. It will not be difficult to ascertain whether or not the person to whom it is addressed finds the introduction a pleasure or a bore. It is folly to pursue an acquaintance thus gained unless each finds the other congenial.—Exchange.

Altitude and Voice.
Generally speaking, races living at high altitudes have weaker and more highly pitched voices than those living in regions where the supply of oxygen is more plentiful. Thus among the Indians living on the plateau between the ranges of the Andes, at an elevation of from 10,000 to 14,000 feet, the men have voices like women, and women like children, and their singing is a shrill monotonous.

Plenty of Opportunities.
In this era of education, of books and libraries, of newspapers and periodicals, of schools and universities, evening schools, lectures and the other endless opportunities for self culture which our country in particular affords all classes, there is no excuse for ignorance. It is only will that is wanting.—Success.

BOONEVILLE.

Flora York who has been sick for quite a while is no better and cannot live but a few days.

Booneville has a board of Trustees now. Consisting of J. M. Campbell, Jas. W. Hogg, W. J. Wilder, Hiram Campbell, and T. L. Gabbard.

John Noble Jr. was shot and badly wounded in the right arm on the head of Cow Creek last week, by Wesley Mcintosh who was indicted for the same crime and under $500 bond to answer.

The inquest over the remains of Alex Bishop who it was claimed was accidentally drowned near Rock Shoal, in Boone county some time ago clearly shows that he had been found dead, with by some one as his skull was broken in above his left ear, indicating that he had been struck with a club.

Every spring for years past our member in Congress has furnished the people of this county with an abundant supply of garden seeds. But this spring they have failed to come to the people Mr. Hunter furnished them in bulk to one who has failed so far to make the trade. The "Gum Shoe" statement is a dandy.

Circuit court closed here Friday evening after having put in one week of pleading work. The grand and petit jury acquitted themselves with much credit.

There were about forty indictments returned by the grand jury. Fred Lone and George Baker was indicted

ADVANCE ON MUKDEN.

Russian Headquarters.

KUROPATKIN RUSHES ASSISTANCE

Mika's Men Reported to be Closing In on Port Arthur—Destroyer Destroyed by a Shell—Movements of the Rival Forces—Progress of the War in the Far East.

Tokyo, May 23.—The Japanese column which is approaching Mukden from the east has had several skirmishes with Cosacks, and is now within a few miles of the Russian headquarters. From the same source it is learned that General Kuropatkin is hurrying reinforcements up from Liao Yang in order to meet the threatened Japanese attack on Mukden.
The Japanese, heavily reinforced, are attempting to drive in the Russian outposts, and that several desperate charges on Russian outposts have been successful between Lhasutun and Kinchow, both sides losing heavily. It is said that the Japanese now in front of Port Arthur is not less than 40,000 men, plentifully supplied with both field and siege guns. They now hold positions strongly entrenched within 15 miles of the port itself, and are drawing closer constantly.

After repeated conferences between the bankers and the ministers and the elder statesmen of Japan, the bankers have accepted the terms of the new popular loan of $50,000,000. It will be issued at 97, bear 5 per cent interest and run for seven years. The former loan was issued at 95 and to run for five years.

Japanese Move Repulsed.

St. Petersburg, May 21.—The following dispatch from General Kuropatkin to the emperor, dated at Liao Yang, has been received here:

A detachment of Cosacks engaged a detachment of the Japanese advance guard on May 18, north of Feng Wang Cheng, in a mountainous district. The fight began in the morning and lasted until 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The Japanese were successfully dislodged from four positions extending more than 10 miles. The pursuit of the Japs was stopped at Dattangky, 13 miles north of Feng Wang Cheng.
Our casualties were six Cosacks wounded, two horses killed and eight horses injured.

Great Battle Reported.

St. Petersburg, May 24.—Three cruisers, sunk by Japan from Chile have been captured. It is reported in the Sea of Japan by the Albatross.

It is also reported here that
M. Lamudorf, the foreign minister, has received a message from the Russian consul at Chefoo saying that the Japanese have made a land attack on Port Arthur and that in doing so lost 15,000 men killed or wounded.
Russian loss is placed at six Cosacks wounded, two horses killed and eight horses injured.

Japs Lose Two Warships.

Tokyo, May 26.—Owing to the disaster at Port Arthur, the Russian naval officer, Admiral Togo says: "May 15, at sea in a deep fog off Port Arthur, the saga rammed into the Yoshino, and the latter in a few minutes was sunk. The same morning the Hatsuse, cruising off Port Arthur covering the landing of the soldiers, struck a mine 10 knots southeast of the harbor entrance. She signalled for help and was instantly struck another mine. She sank in half an hour. Torpedo boats saved 200 of her crew."

Russians Recapturing Newchwang.
Newchwang, May 23.—The Russians are recapturing this place with a fair force of artillery and mounted infantry. The Russians are constructing slight entrenchments south of the town. Steamers from Chefoo report that they pass quantities of wreckage, and it is supposed here that the Russians have been blowing up the obstructions at the entrance to Port Arthur harbor.

Russian Cruiser Aground.
Paris, May 20.—The correspondent at St. Petersburg of the Echo de Paris says: "The Russian cruiser Begalr grounded during a fog on the rocks near the entrance to Vladivostok. Her position is critical. The crew was saved."

Three Jap Cruisers Captured.
Paris, May 24.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Matin says: "It is persistently rumored that the Vladvostok squadron has captured three cruisers bought by Japan from Chile."

A Strong Testimonial.

Paris, Ky., Nov. 26th, 1900.
Dr. T. B. Smith:

Dear Sir:—Fifteen years ago I was seriously afflicted with my kidneys and bladder. I suffered with severe burning pains, scantiness of urine, which was thick like glue, and often as red as blood and oh, how painful! In a word I was in a very bad fix at the time I met you in Falmouth, Ky., fifteen years ago and consulted with you. You then guaranteed two bottles of Smith's Kidney Tonic to cure me. I took the two bottles as directed and it cured me and I never have been troubled since, for which I am so grateful.

Truly,
J. L. SMITH.

Gentlemen:

About two years ago I entered in the civil engineering course in your schools in order to obtain the reference library that goes with it and I give me pleasure to say that I value the same very highly. I have carefully examined the same and use it frequently in my work and find it a very thorough and practical discussion of all subjects pertaining to civil engineering. I judge it constitutes a treatise better adapted to the requirements of the working engineer than anything heretofore published.

Yours truly,

ASA C. BARRON.

Mr. Joseph Poninville, of Stillwater Minn. after having spent over $2,000 with the best doctors for stomach trouble, without relief, was advised by his druggist, Mr. Alex. Richard, to try a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He did so and is a well man today. If troubled with indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite or constipation, give these Tablets a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the result. For sale by Day Bros. Too Great A Risk

In almost every neighborhood there has died from an attack of cholera morbus, often before medical aid could be procured or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these diseases should be kept at hand.

At day of risk is too great for anyone to take a fair chance of getting cholera and a hard won remedy has undoubtedly killed the lives of more people and relapsed, the more pain and suffering than in the other medicine in use. It can always be depended upon. For sale by J. L. Lewis, Co.

"For years I had spells of sick headache, at times enduring untold agonies, could not endure any excitement. Going to church, and even visiting brought on these terrible spells. I tried numerous remedies without relief until I tried Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, and they have cured me. When I feel symptoms of sick headache I take a pill and ward off the attack. When I am tired and nervous, a pill soothes me." MRS. SARAH WATKINS, Elizabethtown, Ind.
